“ I too have many a fond memory of jam sessions, working on cars and many hunting excursions. I hadn't seen Dave in quite some time but thought of him often. I never had a brother and in any ways Dave was like the brother I never had. As always peoples lives take different turns and soon we were separated logistically and for other reasons as well. We would talk on the phone once in a while but I hadn't talked with him in quite a while. Hopefully we will meet again in the afterlife. Meanwhile rest in piece my friend.

“ I'm sorry we haven't seen each other in such a long time, I love you and miss you. Uncle Dave was a huge part of why I am a musician today. My first guitar came from him. I will never forget all the jam sessions with him and my father, Dave's ex-brother in law Kieth. We will jam again rest in peace.
